

Cases and Materials
o n
JUDICIAL PROCEDURE

Volume I

by

JOHN E. CONWAY

Professor of Law
University of Wisconsin Law School

RECEIVED
Law Library

APR 29 1992

Univ of Wis
Madison, WI 53706

Copyright 1956
John E. Conway

KF
8839
C62
1956

301184

CONTENTS

Volume I

Introduction

Chapter I Outline of the Civil Action

Chapter II Getting the Defendant into Court

Chapter III What is a Civil Action?

Chapter IV Pleading

Introduction

- a. Purposes of pleading
 - b. What is a claim?
 - c. What is the function of statement of claim?
 - d. What is a cause of action?
 - e. Is the statement short and understandable?
 - f. What parts of a pleading are not well pleaded?
 - g. When does a complaint fail to state a cause of action or a claim?
 - h. Anticipating defenses
 - i. Pleading specific matters: jurisdiction, damages
 - j. Pleading in alternative: inconsistent allegations
 - k. Pleading defenses: move to dismiss or answer?
 - l. Clarifying the complaint
 - m. Stating defenses: general denial
 - n. Stating defenses: form of denial
 - o. Stating defenses: negative pregnant
 - p. Stating defenses: conclusions
 - q. Waiver of defenses
 - r. Counterclaims
 - s. Effect of demurrer to answer
 - t. Amendment
 - v. Proceedings after decision on demurrer
 - w. Relation of pleading to proof: variance
 - x. Judgment on the pleadings
 - y. Summary judgment
- Appendix -- Drafting pleadings

Chapter V Depositions and Discovery

Chapter VI Pre-Trial Conference

Chapter VII Provisional Remedies

Chapter VIII Getting the Case Set for Trial

Chapter IX Voluntary Dismissal

Chapter X Mode of Trial

- a. Right to trial by court
- b. Statutory proceedings based on equitable remedies
- c. Right to jury trial: effect of choice of action
- d. Legal relief as an incident to equitable actions
- e. Equitable and legal issues
- f. Only equitable relief can be given
- g. Issue is legal
- h. Damages are not incidental
- i. Consolidated actions
- j. Counterclaims
- k. Equitable action or legal defense?
- l. Jury selection: challenge to the array
- m. The voir dire examination: challenges for cause

Chapter XI The Trial: Opening Statement, Burden of Proof, Evidence

- a. Opening statement
- b. Dismissal on opening statement
- c. Burden of proof
- d. Evidence; exclusionary rules; relevance
- e. Degree of persuasion
- f. Circumstantial evidence
- g. Judicial notice
- h. Presumptions

Volume II

Chapter XII [Reserved for New Matter]

Chapter XIII The Trial: Taking the Case from the Jury

- a. At end of plaintiff's case
- b. Directed verdict: the Federal standard
- c. What is substantial evidence?
- d. Does the jury find facts only?

Chapter XIV Special Verdict and Interrogatories

Introduction

- a. What questions are included?
- b. Duplicitous questions

- Chapter XIV (Continued)
- c. Form of questions
 - d. Five-sixths verdict
 - e. Objecting to special verdict question
- Chapter XV Closing Argument and Instructions
- a. Closing argument
 - b. Instructions
- Chapter XVI Deliberations of Jury and Verdict
- a. What can go to jury room?
 - b. Inconsistent verdict
 - c. Impeaching verdict
- Chapter XVII Motions after Verdict
- a. General: combined motions
 - b. The N. O. V. in Wisconsin
 - c. Standard for changing answers
 - d. New trial
 - e. Remittitur and additur in lieu of new trial
- Chapter XVIII Judgment and Execution
- a. Mechanics of judgment
 - b. Equitable relief
 - c. Declaratory judgment
 - d. Execution
 - e. Stay of execution
- Chapter XIX Judgment by Default and by Confession
- a. Judgment by default
 - b. Judgment by confession
- Chapter XX [Reserved for New Matter]
- Chapter XXI Trial to the Court
- a. Evidence
 - b. Findings and conclusions
- Chapter XXII Appeals
- a. Jurisdiction of appeal; finality
 - b. Judgment on multiple claims
 - c. Use of extraordinary writs
 - d. Preserving a record for appeal
 - e. Reviewability of order for new trial
 - f. Case tried on wrong theory below

Chapter XXII (Continued)

- g. Effect of appeal on power of trial court
- h. Dismissal as penalty
- i. Review of case tried without jury

Chapter XXIII Procedure in Criminal Actions; and in Actions for Violations of Municipal Ordinances

Chapter XXIV Procedure in Probate Proceedings

Chapter XXV Procedure in Divorce Actions

Chapter XXVI Procedure in Admiralty Actions

Table of Cases

Table of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure